Wroclaw - a little known delight

F 5 1

It is probably true to say that many, if not all, of the visitors to the 48th QubicaAMF Bowling World Cup would never have gone to Wroclaw but for the tournament. But we would have missed a gem.

H T H

II II

It is a truly charming city. Dating back to the 10th century, it boasts amazing medieval buildings and bridges over the river Oder.

But it also has modern infrastructure to be proud of, much of which was constructed for 'Euro 2012', the European football championships. Wroclaw is also hosting the World Games in 2017 and has been chosen as the European City of Culture for 2016. Quite a few accolades for this lovely city.

Some of the players were to go on a tour of the city later in the week and returned full of enthusiasm for what they had seen

As we flew in, we could see a modern elliptical building, standing proud over the surrounding area. It's the Sky Tower, home of Sky Bowling, the venue for our event which was hosted by Marek Maciejewski, owner of the centre. It is also the home of Fitness Academy, a very well equipped gym with a superb spa, opposite the bowling centre and also owned by Marek. All the bowlers and officials had free membership for the duration of the World Cup.

We often talk about the 'World Cup Family' and this year was no exception with three married couples taking part.

In the parkland near the bowling centre were numerous trees covered with mistletoe, a vital part of Christmas celebrations in many countries where lovers are meant to kiss underneath the mistletoe.

Here we see Marin and Samy-Anna Tranier of New Caledonia and also Marcio and Lara Jesus of the Azores keeping up the custom. Marin and Samy-Anna met at the Bowling World Cup in 2002 and married in 2009

We then caught up with Khaled and Hela Meziou of Tunisia who posed for the camera outside the Sky Centre and in front of the replica of the Profile of Time sculpture by Salvador Dali

Returning champions

Three players taking part had previously won the title. And one of the coaches also has a Bowling World Cup on his list of achievements. Here we see Ann Maree Putney (Australia), champion in 2007, Aumi Guerra (Dominican Republic), champion in 2010 and 2011 and aiming to make history and be the first bowler ever to 'threepeat', Tomas Leandersson (Sweden), champion in 2000 in Lisbon and now coach to the Swedish team, and Michael Schmidt (Canada), champion in 2005 and 2010

Happy Birthday!

Several players celebrated their birthdays during the tournament and each was presented with a small birthday cake, complete with candle.

Here we see Terje Roosi of Estonia, Yuka Ooshima of Japan, Fabian Lopez of Mexico, Elkhan Feyzullayev of Azerbaijan and Syafiq Rhidwan Abdul Malek of Malaysia with their cakes.

Blanka Hanusikova of the Czech Republic celebrated her birthday by becoming was the first woman from her country to qualify for the second round. Here we see her in front of the leaderboard celebrating her achievement

As is the custom, the host nation came in last. ### Qualification

The first hurdle for the players was to qualify for the top 24. In four squads, everyone played 20 games over four days.

When the dust settled, Andrej Sergeev of Russia and Blanka Hanusikova made it to the second round while Adam Shrubb of Gibraltar and Martha Karatzoula of Greece were the ones to miss out. Adam consoled himself with the knowledge that his was the best ever result by a Gibraltar player.

Meet the players

Well, hello again!

The Bowling World Cup is not just competitive; it is also one of the friendliest tournaments there is. Many people return year after year meeting new friends and catching up with people from previous competitions.

The same goes for many of the QubicaAMF staff who come from various countries and meet once a year.

Bernard Gibbons, our tournament director, meets a model reindeer at the Christmas market

Cliff Adair, assistant tournament director enjoys himself at the QubicaAMF dinner

QubicaAMF staff members Laurie Pearce and Luca Maranini, who run the scoring and results system. They provide a CD of the full results for everyone at the end of the event

We could not run the tournament without our marvellous local lane marshalls. They all receive certificates to mark their work and here we see the group. Thank you!

They say cooking is the new rock 'n' roll and two of our male players are keen cooks. They ventured into the kitchen in the bowl restaurant - watched closely by chef Szymon Lozowy! Here we see Ben Copeland of Australia checking the pot while Lyndon Walters of Wales smile to the camera

And part of the restaurant is a well stocked bar, where Scotland's Steven Gill put his bar tending skills to work

Close to the main entrance to the Sky Tower is a complicated road junction, which traffic engineer Jiri Hindrak of the Czech Republic had a look at

Aksana Sinitsa of Belarus plaits the hair of Russian Alena Korobkova

We had excellent internet access throughout the bowling centre. Here Melonie Lister of New Zealand works on her netbook

Estonia's Kert Truus, whose hobby is power lifting, made good use of the free membership of the gym

We are also grateful to our volunteers. From preparatory work, here putting together the souvenir packs, to all the work behind the scenes, they worked long hours. Many, this year, were university students who spoke at least two or usually three or four languages, perfectly. Thank you too!

Bowling is a sport for all ages as shown by our competitors. Here we see the youngest and oldest in each section: Fabian Lopez of Mexico who turned 17 during the tournament; Fekadu Asrat from Ethiopia, 54; Lucrecia Lopez Jove from Argentina, 62; and Yuka Ooshima from Japan who also celebrated her birthday in Wroclaw, when she became 19

Canadian Michael Schmidt came from 22nd place after the qualifying 20 games to shoot a total of 1915 and pull himself up the leaderboard. With one game to go, he was into the next round by 15 pins, but Matt Chamberlain of England and James Gruffman of Sweden were chasing hard. In the end it was Matt who went through to the round robin, leaving James and Michael to think of what might have been.

It was much the same in the women's section although the final place in the top eight was much clearer. The cut was made at 6099, Jane Sin of Malaysia, who was 82 pins ahead of 9th place, Heidi Thorstensen of Norway.

The scoring in the women's section was sensational. There was only one set over 1900 for the men but two for the women, from Aumi Guerra and Kirsten Penny. The overall average for the top 24 women was 212.24, for the men 212.47. The top 8 women were out averaging the men – just! – by 224.64 to 224.39.

It was the second set of qualifying games when Danielle McEwan of the USA shot the tournament's first perfect game.

The young student of psychology and education was delighted and said: "It's actually my first ever sanctioned 300! I've had perfect games in open play and unsanctioned tournaments and it's just great to get one in an event like this." It was the 10th perfect game by a woman in the history of the event.

The question then was whether the men could match her. No-one did in the qualifying games. Come the round of 24, former champion Michael Schmidt hit the first 11 but left a single pin. In the very next game, our third place player from last year, Mykhaylo Kalika of the Ukraine, came up with the goods. And he did it in front of a TV crew from his native land, here to cover the tournament.

Mykhaylo's previous game had been a 152 and coach Ron Hatfield explained: "We made a really big change. Sometimes it comes off, sometimes it doesn't, but this worked like a dream!"

Farewell to one of our press stalwarts

The presentation to our admired colleague

Hazel McCleary has covered many Bowling World Cups for the Canadian media. "But I'm not as young as I was," she said, "and the time has come for me to stay at home a bit more. This will be my last World Cup as a working member of the press gang!"

All in the media room and many of her other friends and admirers contributed to small gifts to mark the end of an era.

But as John Walker said: "I don't believe we will not see her again. She'll be back, maybe not working, but we will see her!"

And we all look forward to that.

When it came to the position round of the round robin, Marshall Kent of the USA and Andres Gomez of Colombia were already assured of their place in the stepladder finals. But it was a tight race to see who would make it in 3rd place.

Before this final match, Hareb Al Mansoori of the UAE was 48 pins up on Syafiq Ridwhan Abdul Malek of Malaysia which meant Syafiq needed to win by 19 pins to go through. He shot 209 to Hareb's 161, so it was Syafiq who advanced to the arena finals.

The top three for the women were set before the position round and it was just a question of the order they would finish in. Aumi Guerra of the Dominican Republic, was in pole position, with Kirsten Penny of England in 2nd and Shayna Ng of Singapore in 3rd.

Danielle McEwan (USA) was the one to miss out, finishing fourth in her first World Cup.

Again, the women scored higher than the men. Top man's score for the 8 games of the round robin was 1788, by Syafiq. Six of the women beat that, with five of them shooting over 1800. Overall average for the men in the round robin was 220.18, for the women it was 224.47.

The Grand Finals

First to take to the lanes were the women: Kirsten was to play Shayna. Shayna prevailed by 2 games to nil, 246 to 215 and 221 to 191.

She moved on to play Aumi. Aumi started like a train, winning the first game 269 to 224, but Shayna came back to win and amazing second game by 267 to 259.

So a third game was needed and two big splits put Aumi at a big disadvantage. By the 9th frame it was all over and Shayna took the third game 247 to 169. Her set of 738 is a new arena record, beating the Philippines' Lisa del Rosario's 737 set in 2001.

Shayna is studying for a sports science degree, and is coached by Remy Ong who himself has an impressive Bowling World Cup record, having competed five times with a best placing of 2nd in 2002. Shayna said: "I had to fight my way up from third but it did mean that I got used to the lanes for the finals and Remy really helped me make lots of adjustments, so many that I had to write them down to remember them. It has been a great experience working with Remy. This is my first world title and I'm a record holder as well!"

The players were not the only stars in the arena. We were truly honoured by the presence of the former President of Poland and Noble Prize winner, Lech Walesa, one of the towering figures of modern history..

The men then took to the lanes.

The men's first match saw Syafiq beat Andres in three games. Andres won the first game 236 to 234 but Syafiq came back with 224 and 258 to Andres' 201 and 213.

Syafiq moved on to play Marshall Kent of the USA for the title. He bowled steadily and won by 2 games to nil, 236 to 225 and 237 to 221.

He said afterwards: "I think I was lucky to play on the championship lanes first. I learnt how to play the lanes and I got better carry in the final match. It is such an honour for me and my country as I am the first Malaysian player to win this wonderful tournament."

His win actually meant that Malaysia and the USA were tied for top country but the trophy went to Malaysia as one of their players won the title.

Celebrations

So the bowling was over and we were all invited to a sumptuous dinner in one of the major conference and event centres of Wroclaw.

President Walesa speaking to us

We were again delighted that Lech Walesa could join us. It is amazing to think that quite a few of the players here had not been born when he led the Solidarnosc trade union movement which eventually led to free elections in Poland and arguably to the eventual break-up of the Soviet Union.

President Walesa spoke briefly to us, wondering why he had been invited. What did he have in common with bowling? The answer he said was 'Strikes!'

All the trophies were presented at the dinner. First up were our high game players, Danielle and Mykhaylo who received their trophies and certificates from John Walker

Then came our 3rd place players, Kirsten and Andres, next our runners up, Aumi and Marshall, and finally our champions, Shayna and Syafiq, who donned the champions sashes.

The titles of sportsman and sportswoman of the tournament are coveted. The players themselves vote and the trophies are traditionally presented by our champions. This year the titles went to Francisco Rodriguez of Spain and Angie Hartley of South Africa, seen here with their trophies.

And sadly we said farewell to our Polish colleagues.

And we're off to Krasnoyarsk for 2013

The 49th Bowling World Cup will be held in the 32-lane Sibiryak centre in Krasnoyarsk, in Siberia, Russia. The city, which is on the river Yenisei and relatively flat though surrounded by mountains, was decribed by the great Russian author Chekhov as the most beautiful city in Siberia.

The Sibryak centre is on the second floor of a 'World Class' fitness and Hilton hotel complex. The owner and Chief Executive of the Sibiryak centre, Vladimir Egorov, is himself a bowler and the Head of Bowling Federation, Nikolay Babyuk, has bowled three times in the Bowling World Cup.

There is more information about the city on www.visitsiberia.info

It will be an exciting time for us!
